Currently on faculty at the Identity School of Acting where I teach movement for actors and acting technique at their intermediate, advanced, and professional levels. Also on faculty at the Elizabeth Mestnik Acting Studio where I teach on their two-year Meisner technique professional training program and pioneered the reimagining of their beginning acting program to include non-racist, process-driven techniques and methodologies currently being explored in top MFA programs.

Areas of expertise currently being utilized in my teaching: Meisner technique, Viewpoints, Michael Chekhov technique, Stanislavsky, Demidov, heightened language/Shakespeare, animal work, Laban, rasaboxes, embodied voice, instrument work.
